

W elcome to The WestPark.

Welcome to the comfort and convenience of living in our pleasant urban atmosphere. Overlooking Rock Creek Park and located mid-way between Georgetown and Dupont Circle, The WestPark provides you with a door to one of our city's most beautiful, diverse neighborhoods. The lively character of the area is reflected in its mix of historic brownstone residences, embassies, shops, galleries, restaurants, entertainment, and services.

Convenience is the key.

A short walk from your home brings you to your office in the Downtown business district, shopping and dining in Georgetown, classes at one of the nearby universities, or the relaxing natural beauty of Rock Creek Park. At Dupont Circle's Metro station, you can step onto the subway taking you to even more of Washington's amenities.

Enjoy your evenings and weekends in a community that offers a wide variety of fine restaurants, art galleries, theaters, shops, and night spots, all within walking distance. Only minutes away are picturesque strolls through the historic streets of Georgetown, or the excitement of performing arts at the renowned Kennedy Center.

Nature's wonder awaits you just steps away along the bicycle and jogging paths of Rock Creek Parkway. Here, miles of natural beauty stretch from Washington's northwest suburbs to the scenic views of the Potomac River and National Monuments. Even neighborhood gardens flower among the Victorian brownstone town-homes of the Dupont Circle area.

Life at The WestPark offers you all of these wonderful neighborhood amenities along with easy access to all that Washington has to offer. Welcome to the comfort and convenience of WestPark living.
